Tom Hanley named to Stanley K. Lacy Executive Leadership Series® Class XL

INDIANAPOLIS – July 8, 2015 –Tom Hanley, Executive Director at Nine13sports, will have the opportunity to advance his community leadership interests as a member of Class XL of the Stanley K. Lacy Executive Leadership Series® (SKL).

Hanley is one of 25 young professionals to be accepted into the series, a highly competitive program that seeks to expand the ranks of community leaders by teaching and motivating members to address the needs of central Indiana.

"I am honored to have been chosen to participate in SKL Class XL, which has been pivotal for many of central Indiana's most prominent leaders to become more effective community leaders," Hanley said. "It's humbling to have the opportunity to follow in their footsteps and have the opportunity to make a lasting contribution to the future success of Indianapolis."

Class members are chosen because of their significant community involvement and professional achievement; their demonstrated interest in community issues; a record of participation and achievement in voluntary community activities; and their willingness to expand their leadership role in the community.

Mr. Mark Miles, President & CEO of Hulman & Company and graduate of SKL Class VI, has been named the Moderator for SKL Class XL. To ensure that the series is timely and topical, each class's moderator identifies aspects of broad economic and societal issues that are specific to central Indiana for the class to study.

Class XL will meet monthly from September through June. Participants will interact with local leaders, professional experts, and community decision makers to discuss issues such as the region's quality of life, education and economic development.
